Genre: plays a mix of Country, Blue Grass, Rock 'n Roll and Original Music.

Wayne Metzler of Washington, Utah is a Rochester, New York native. His hobby and self-taught playing of the guitar has brought him together with fellow band members

Singer/songwriter Carolyn Murset has lived in southern Utah with her husband and five children since 1983. Carolyn has performed at the St. George Tabernacle, St. George Arts Festival, George's Corner Café and the Town and Country Bank noon concerts, as well as Hurricane City Peach Days. She is also a member of John Houston's Gospel Choir. She also plays her own finger style arrangement in alternate guitar tunings.

Pat Swansborough, singer/songwriter, has been playing guitar in bands since he taught himself at the age of fourteen. Pat grew up in northern California and has played in several bands and locations throughout that area.

Singer/songwriter Lauretta Swansborough moved to Washington in 1994 from Delta, Utah. Lauretta is the mother of nine and Grandmother of fifteen. You might have seen Lauretta two years ago in Dixie's Got Talent as one of the final two in her age category. She also enjoys performing with John Houston's Gospel Choir and Lieto Voices!
