

Raggedy Edge with Lynn Cassell Perdzock

Genre: Folk-Americana, Blues, Jazz & Alternative Country

Band: Raggedy Edge

Lynn now performs with Bob Farley (guitars, mandolin, ukulele, harmonica, vocals) in the duo Raggedy Edge and with Bob and Pat Carine Sr. (banjo, mandolin, guitar, vocals) in the trio Triclectic providing Lynn with more opportunities to play mandolin, ukulele and light percussion, and to sing more harmony vocals!

We met and formed Raggedy Edge in early 2011, after realizing our musical backgrounds and styles were a good match for one another. We write original material, play various instruments (guitar, mandolin, ukulele, harmonica, percussion), and have been involved in music since childhood in a variety of settings, from churches to street fairs, restaurants and clubs, teen centers to senior centers.

The duo format allows plenty of flavor to the musical ear and fits easily into any venue, small or large. We cater each performance to audience preferences, while maintaining a mix of styles and genres, from the popular music of the 1900s to the songs we've written during the past few years.

We enjoy playing with other musicians when the chance arises, and often join with Storm's Creek banjo play with Pat Carine Sr.
